

Recommendation Letter

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write this letter on behalf of Mrs. Allison Hetzel. She has been my college professor for two of my theatre courses here at the University. She is also my Theatre advisor and has helped me through my time here at the University.

As a professor here at the University Mrs. Hetzel teaching techniques are very specialized and are key to the longevity of an actor's career. I first had Mrs. Hetzel in my acting one class where we were taught and learned the fundamentals of warming up and the importance of warming up before performing. The next time I had Mrs. Hetzel was in her Advanced Voice and Speech class. In this class we were taught the importance of using our voice and how it was our tool. She gave us different ways to protect and maintain our voices and different things to avoid doing with our voices. Mrs. Hetzel's classes are essential building blocks to becoming an actor. Her techniques and teachings come across easily and are complex, but not hard to build off of. Mrs. Hetzel likes to take the time to make sure that everyone understands what is going on in the class. Her techniques in class and great personality make Mrs. Hetzel one of my favorite professors on campus.

As an advisor Mrs. Hetzel makes sure that she is on top of the game. She prides herself on not just being knowledgeable of our theatre classes, but our regular classes as well. She likes to take the time to talk to us at advising sessions to see how we are doing both in class, and outside of class too. She takes the time to personalize each advising section and even likes to spice up advising sessions by inviting our general art and science advisors to group advising sessions. Mrs. Hetzel's advising knowledge and creativity definitely make her one of the best advisors in the department.

Sincerely,

Malcolm Driscoll
